OFFICE NOTE.

52) All questions relating to the Heads of Departments, officers of Civil Service and officers drawing Rs.500/- p.m., are dealt with in the C.B. and are submitted to the concerned Secretaries to Government and to the Ministers concerned, through them, except the cases of Heads of Departments and officers of the status of Deputy Commissioners which are submitted to the Chief Secretary in addition. It is not the practice to submit to the Chief - Secretary routine matters of this kind that are dealt wi with in the C.B. It is for this reason that this file was not submitted to the Chief Secretary at any stage earlier. If so ordered, this procedure may be improved upon in two ways:

53) (1) At present, only Council notes relating to cases for consideration at a meeting of the Council are being submitted to the Chief Secretary and cases meant to be disposed of by Circulation are submitted at the final stage after completion of the circulation period before issue of orders. Hereafter, it is - proposed, if approved, to submit to the Chief - Secretary for perusal copies of circulation notes as soon as the file is received in the Branch simultaneously with the issue of copies of Circulation Note to Ministers. This will result in the Chief Secretary being informed of the proposal as soon as a case - enters the Council stage.

54) (2) All cases dealt with in C.B., through - whichever Secretary it may be, may be submitted through the Chief Secretary before seeking orders.

Chief Secretary) 55) Intlld. K.M.R. 24/6/50

2094/CB

56) C.B.is a branch primarily under the Chief Secretary and it deals with cases of certain categories of officers of all departments; this is done not because of C.B's existence in the scheme of things as a separate branch, but because, it is the business of the Chief Secretary, and ~~the~~ C.B. is the Establishment given to Chief Secretary to deal with such cases.

57) All cases dealt with in C.B. have to be put up to Chief Secretary, whether they relate only to cases of M.C.S. officers or otherwise; in the latter class of cases, they go to the concerned administrative Secretary also. Also, which is more important, C.B. should see that cases which should be ~~initiat~~ initiated and worked up there, are not dealt with in other administrative Secretariats without the C.B. or Chief Secretary ever coming to know of it, as has been the case in a number of instances latterly.

58) (1) and (2) on previous page may be adopted.

59) This file can now go through.
